

Professional Book Studies:

Would you like to improve one or more areas of your reading instruction in the classroom while gaining self-selected in-service credit? One avenue for professional development toward that instructional goal is through the study of current professional books. Any K-8 teacher in Jefferson County Schools may find some of the following Book Studies to be of interest! Please E-mail the literacy coach listed before the start date if you wish to sign up. For questions or concerns, please contact Susan Roberts: sroberts@k12tn.net or 865-397-3194

- Each session will be at 3:30-4:30 unless the group makes a change.
- Hour-for-hour in-service credit will be given. If all four one-hour sessions are attended a possible four hours of credit can be obtained.
