Write S above the subject and V above the verb in each clause.
There are two clauses in each sentence.

1. We will go to the park when the rain stops.
2. Stan can see the movie if he finishes his homework.
3. Since we don't have plans, we can go to the party.
4. Although there are many prizes, you still need to work hard to win them.
5. Joey is going to the meeting after he gets home from Dallas.
6. Mary can attend the game as long as she passes her test today.
7. Whenever Mom gets home, she will tell us the big news.
8. The winner is Joe who won the prize for the last four years.
9. We all enjoyed the movie that Mom allowed us to see on Monday.
10. We will play in the beach sand because it is safer than on the playground.

Now go back and underline the independent clauses once and the dependent clauses twice. Remember there are two clauses in each sentence.
