

1. A ray is a part of a line with one end point and the other end goes on endlessly in the other direction.
2. A acute angle measures less than 90 degrees.
3. Two angles that add up to one hundred eighty degrees.
4. Two angles that add up to ninety degrees.
5. Vertical angles are equal in size and space.
6. A series of points that go endlessly on in both directions is called a line.
7. A line segment is a line with two endpoints.
8. The point at which two rays join to form an angle.
9. Two lines that are equal distance apart and never intersect.
10. A line segment that passes through the circle and has endpoints on the circle.