

1. Which of the following instruments has a double reed?

- A. Oboe
- B. Clarinet
- C. Bass Clarinet
- D. French Horn

3. What is the name for the middle pedal of the piano?

- A. The damper pedal
- B. The mezzo pedal
- C. The sostenuto pedal
- D. The forte pedal

5. To which instrument is the Heckelphone most similar?

- A. Saxophone
- B. Clarinet
- C. Oboe
- D. Horn

7. What is the German word for an embouchure?

- A. Tonloch
- B. Klappenloch
- C. Rohrblatt
- D. Mundloch

9. In which clef would a composer write music for a tenor trombone?

- A. Alto clef
- B. Treble clef
- C. Tenor clef
- D. Bass clef

2. What is the largest instrument of the orchestral strings?

- A. Violin
- B. Violoncello
- C. Viola
- D. Contrabass

4. With which family instruments would you use a bow?

- A. Brass
- B. Woodwinds
- C. Percussion
- D. Strings

6. With which family of instruments could a performer create a timbral trill?

- A. Horns
- B. Strings
- C. Percussion
- D. Synthesized instruments

8. What is another name commonly used for orchestral bells?

- A. Majestic Bells
- B. Celesta
- C. Glockenspiel
- D. Vibraphone

10. What is the Viola's pitch in relation to the Violin's?

- A. A perfect fifth above
- B. A perfect fourth below
- C. A perfect fifth below
- D. A minor third above